1976 RAVELINGS

Monmouth College
Monmouth, Illinois
Volume 80

From the high brick window
Way up here
I can see the street.
It fills with people Dressed in black, Quiet, neat.

They stare up.
In double-file
they cross
In my direction.
Now I can hear
Their leather feet Clatter on the stairs.

surely they are not Coming here
With their
brown paper, Smell of
incense,
flowers.
The bolt turns
in the door.
I cannot turn.

The walls tilt and lean.
The people prop them up.
In the black shadows
Whispers frame
A familiar, familiar name.

Dance, Dance, Dance A Medicinal Treat

M.C. Talent Show,

Isn't it fun being a pledge? Those representing Pi Phi provided some country corn, the Kappa's gave a good report, and the K.D.'s demonstrated an exotic dance from Hawaii.

M.C.

The tug-o-war, the frisbee toss, and the faculty/student softball provided excitement for this year's Scott Olympics. A new event was added this year, The Sheet Race. Ask S.A.E.'s Little Sisters what they thought of it.

LABS

Since taking a course that includes a lab is a requirement for all M.C. students, everyone experiences the joy of an experiment. If exploring the innards of a fetal pig isn't your cup of tea, how about an electrode in a rat's brain; Monmouth has it all!

The library is an important facility that all M.C. students use. Whether you come here to study, sleep, socialize, or to breathe unpolluted air, you'll always find it a nice place to visit. Besides containing an endless supply of knowledge, ranging from Biology to Current Events, it can provide a hiding place where one can hide for hours upon end.

Nineteen Hundred & '76

For I dipt into the future,

far as human eye could see,

Saw the Vision of the World, and all the

wonder that would be;

Saw the heavens fill with commerce,

argosies
of magic sails,

Pilots of the purple twilight,

dropping down
with costly bales;

Heard the heavens fill with shouting,

and there rain'd
a ghastly dew

From the nations' airy navies grappling in the central blue;

For along the world wide whisper of the south-wind rushing warm,

with the standards of the peoples

plunging thro' the thunder-storm;

Till the war-drum throb'd no longer,

and the battle flags were furl'd

In the Parliment of Man

the Federation of the World.

Ther the common sense of most

Shall hold a fretful realm in awe,

And the kindly earth shall slumber,

lapt in universal law.

Locksley Hall
by Tennyson

When you see

A worthy person,

Endeavor to

Emulate him,

When you see

An unworthy person,

Then examine

Your

Inner self!
